Commemoration of International Women's Day

Mexico, in its capacity as Pro-Témpore Presidency of the Regional Conference on Migration (RCM), joins the commemoration of the International Women's Day, highlights its commitment to the promotion and protection of the human rights of women and girls in the context of migration cycles, recognizing their economic, social and cultural contributions in the countries of origin, transit and destination.

Now more than ever we must act to close inequality gaps, eradicate stereotypes about migrant women and girls; and prevent, address, and punish violence against them.

Mexico reaffirms its commitment to promote, within the framework of the Pro-Témpore Presidency of the RCM, regional efforts that guarantee the rights of women and girls in migration contexts in accordance with signed international commitments and achieve the objectives of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, specifically goal 5, and the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly, and Regular Migration.
